Reforma Pilates demo d.o.o. processes the personal data you provide when joining, booking a session, or subscribing to the newsletter. We use it to manage memberships, notify you of timetable changes, and issue invoices.

The health questionnaire completed before your first visit is stored separately and is accessible only to the instructors who lead your sessions. We do not pass data to third parties other than our accountant and the booking system provider.

You may request a copy, a correction, or deletion of your data at any time at the address in the footer. This is sample content for a theme demonstration.
